

Making Space Services

Making Space was founded by, and for, people who understand exactly what it is that makes their local area tick.

Today we're continuing to grow from our base in Northwest England by staying faithful to these ideals...using our years of successful experience to apply new service models, embrace innovative treatments and therapies, and expand our services into new regions throughout the UK.

Making Space services will always be locally delivered...for local people.

Making Space ♥ Staffordshire

Services for people with mental health conditions, learning disabilities and dementia...
and for their carers.

THE FREEDOM TO ENJOY AN EVERYDAY LIFE

For almost 30 years, Making Space has been providing essential personalised support and enablement services for people with mental health conditions...and for the people who are their carers.

Today, this invaluable experience is also used to deliver care, support and enablement services for people with learning disabilities and people with dementia – as well as their carers too.

In fact...Making Space is all about people... people we ❤️ to work with
